

“Put the Boy Down” (aka “Radical Boy”)

By Doiran James and Clay Djubal

~~has~~ just a radical boy
 I'm not gonna conform ~~when his shirts together~~ ~~I got my shit together~~ says we create a storm and I'm creating a storm

I'm sitting on my ass
 my fingers up my bar I'm refusing to work and I hate my man

I do what I like ~~can't~~ my aim isn't to please
 I only think of my self I'm just a social disease I'm in a adverts funk band and I like having my say cause I'm a radical boy
 I gotta have my own way

Chorus

but you all talk and no action your ideas are all fake you gotta get it together oh how long will it take hey man I got my shit together just gotta give me some time your just a social disease man your just a radical slime

A A B - chorus
 A A B chorus
 C D quite } B chorus }
 B loud
 A A B B end

Verse Verse
 Verse Verse
 Verse

© Copyright 1979 C.R Djubal and Doiran James. All rights reserved

Northern Tablelands Music Industry Archive at www.havegravity.com; see Thoughts and Memories

See also Vice Squad, Crash Landing and Shoot the DJ entries